Singapore, 1 January 2024 – Singapore ushered in the new year with mesmerising countdown fireworks at the Marina Bay Singapore Countdown 2024, presented by the Urban Redevelopment Authority. This year, the highly-anticipated fireworks display was launched from a more central location of the Bay, offering more spectators a captivating viewing experience from all around.

Across three chapters in the hour leading up to the new year, the fireworks illuminated the Bay, telling an uplifting story of reflection and new beginnings. A spectacular finale at midnight capped off the festivities as we welcomed 2024 with a bang.
